

STORM IN THE WEST

CRIPPLE CREEK DISTRICT CRIPPLED BY A SEVERE BLIZZARD.

Several Lives Supposed to Be Lost and Much Property Damaged—Furious Gale in Texas.

CRIPPLE CREEK, Col., April 12.—The Cripple Creek district was visited by the severest and most destructive blizzard ever known here to-day. An immense amount of damage has been done, and in all probability some lives have been lost in the hills, rumors to that effect being in circulation, and general fear is entertained for the prospectors. A light snow started at 11 o'clock last night and about 3 o'clock this morning the storm renewed and the velocity of the wind, which was from the northwest, increased and continued to blow at the rate of sixty miles an hour all day. A score or more of buildings in this city were blown down and tents, signs and loose lumber were scattered over town. All the telephone wires out of the camp are down and no trains arrived or departed there this morning. At 12:30 the Cripple Creek Commercial three-story building on Carr avenue, near the Midland depot, fell with a crash. It caught on fire from an overturned stove and was destroyed. The Boston Cafe building, at Carr and Second streets, was partially wrecked. A large rooming house on Wayne avenue, a few blocks above town, and several occupants were injured. The city is in darkness, as all the electric light wires are down. Communication is cut off with all outside points, and the only means of telegraph wire. Many store-fronts have been blown down and some of the business houses, as well as residences, were demolished. Rumors of loss of life in the outlying districts are in general circulation. In the hills hundreds of prospectors are believed to be in danger, as the majority of them are blown away. The damage to property throughout the camp will not fall short of $100,000.

HURRICANE IN TEXAS. Many Buildings Damaged and Destroyed Throughout the State.

DALLAS, Tex., April 12.—All of that part of the State west, southwest and north-west was visited by a severe windstorm last night. The wind came from the west and in many localities approached the dignity of a tornado. At Fort Worth a sash, door and blind factory and the grand stand at the baseball park were wrecked. At Dallas, a small hotel below the Fort Worth and Rio Grande railway depot, the Methodist Church and nine business houses were destroyed. At Fort Worth, at Reagan, Falls county, several buildings were almost demolished. At Annetta, Parker county, several buildings were blown away and a number of residences crushed. At Bates, Denton county, the Methodist Church was destroyed and other buildings moved from their foundations. Along the line of the Texas Central, from El Paso to Dallas, damage to farm houses and crops is reported. The wind was followed by a driving rain which added to the damage. No estimate of the amount of loss has been received, but it will be considerable. Rain was general throughout the State.

House Wrecked and Boy Killed. COLORADO CITY, Tex., April 12.—A cyclone of limited dimensions but tremendous force struck a portion of Colorado last night at 10 o'clock, doing considerable damage to property and resulting in the death of James, the two-year-old son of J. M. McElroy.

The storm struck the four-room building occupied by J. M. McElroy. The house was literally swept away. The boy, James, was struck in the back of the head by a portion of the timbers and his skull fractured, resulting in his death. Mrs. McElroy, the mother, was struck in the head and the other children were bruised, but not seriously. The rain fell for two hours after the cyclone, and did much damage.

TOWN PLUNDERED.

Twenty Thousand Dollars' Worth of Goods Taken by Cubans.

HAVANA, April 12.—The insurgent leader Caldenas has burned the machinery and buildings of the plantation of Mazorra. Inglesito and Junco, at the head of a band of insurgents, entered from Bermuda. They plundered the stores of goods to the value of $20,000. They also burned several houses, as well as the cane fields and settlements of Govin, near San Gabriel.

The column of the Cuban army, in engagement with Jose Macao, dislodged the insurgents and took their camp and ammunition. The Cuban army was composed of three and four hundred men. The leaders, Macao and Perez, were wounded. Of the troops four were killed and six wounded.

In some severe skirmishing in Santa Clara the insurgents lost fifteen killed, while the Cubans had three severely wounded. Colonel Moncada, at La Pastora, on Pass River, in the Sagua district, was under the fire of the insurgent forces for three hours, when he dislodged them with great loss. The artillery contributed greatly to this success.

An Inch of Rain Fell.

ABILENE, Tex., April 12.—A terrific storm, the velocity of the wind being sixty miles an hour, accompanied by a line of rainfall, swept over this section last night. In this place four residences and half a dozen workshops were demolished and a number of residences moved from their foundations and otherwise badly damaged. Many buildings were unroofed, telegraph and electric lines were blown down and telegraph communication cut off until late this morning. Mrs. Johnson, who was severely injured, her residence being destroyed.

Trains Delayed by Snow.

DENVER, Col., April 12.—The storm of last night and to-day was the most disastrous to railway traffic of the winter. Little snow fell in Denver, but the trains on all roads running into the city have been delayed and the Union Pacific, Denver & Gulf was closed. The train from Fort Worth got no further than Trinidad. News of the snow in the mountains of Colorado and northern New Mexico.

There, Now!

Buffalo Courier. Woman is bound to get back at man every time when imposed upon or accused of wrong-doing. A man who is a true naturalist says that the diminution in the number of song birds is due not to the fashion of wearing birds on bonnets, or to the small boy, or to the general use by farmers of Paris green and other poisons as insect exterminators.

Should an Actor Feel?

New York Evening Sun.

After his lecture on dramatic art yesterday Mr. Joseph Jefferson answered a number of questions.

Awarded Highest Honors—World's Fair, 1893.

DR. CREAM

MOST PERFECT MADE.

A pure Glycerin Cream of Tartar Powder. Free from Ammonia, Alum or any other adulterant.

40 YEARS THE STANDARD.

ber of questions. "As to whether an actor should feel his character intensely or not," he said, "it is a matter of actor's own individuality. A great French actor says the part should not be felt, and another great French actor says it should be felt. I, even if it is a matter of shedding tears, I cannot prescribe how much an actor should feel. As representing the American school, Mr. Jefferson takes a position that is neither the English nor the French one."

Several Lives Supposed to Be Lost and Much Property Damaged—Furious Gale in Texas.

Candidates Nominated by Primaries and Delegate Conventions.

Special to the Indianapolis Journal.

ROCKVILLE, Ind., April 12.—The Republican primary election for nominating county officers resulted as follows: Representative, Albert M. Adams; clerk, John Harshbarger; treasurer, Thomas D. Byers; sheriff, William D. Merrill; county assessor, Clark E. McDaniel; coroner, H. E. Newlin; surveyor, Claude Ott; commissioners, M. O. Sullivan and John Hardin. The heaviest vote, 2,258, was cast for sheriff, there being two candidates against W. D. Mull for re-nomination. Here, a small town below the Fort Worth and Rio Grande railway depot, the Methodist Church and nine business houses were destroyed. At Fort Worth, at Reagan, Falls county, several buildings were almost demolished. At Annetta, Parker county, several buildings were blown away and a number of residences crushed. At Bates, Denton county, the Methodist Church was destroyed and other buildings moved from their foundations. Along the line of the Texas Central, from El Paso to Dallas, damage to farm houses and crops is reported. The wind was followed by a driving rain which added to the damage. No estimate of the amount of loss has been received, but it will be considerable. Rain was general throughout the State.

WONT AID SCIENCE.

Holmes Declines to Allow His Emotions to Be Registered.

Philadelphia Press. Many scientific men, various societies and many colleges are making efforts to secure the removal of the brain of H. H. Holmes, the late serial murderer. Several have made offers to buy his corpse. Holmes' disposition is to be made of whatever he may desire. He is not to be specified by himself. Knowing this, the medical men have sent their applications to one of them escaped alive, James, the oldest son of Holmes, who is now in the hands of the police. He has spoken but little upon this subject to Mr. Rotan, but it is expected that he will make a statement, directing post-mortem arrangements.

WONT AID SCIENCE.

Holmes Declines to Allow His Emotions to Be Registered.

Philadelphia Press. Many scientific men, various societies and many colleges are making efforts to secure the removal of the brain of H. H. Holmes, the late serial murderer. Several have made offers to buy his corpse. Holmes' disposition is to be made of whatever he may desire. He is not to be specified by himself. Knowing this, the medical men have sent their applications to one of them escaped alive, James, the oldest son of Holmes, who is now in the hands of the police. He has spoken but little upon this subject to Mr. Rotan, but it is expected that he will make a statement, directing post-mortem arrangements.

WONT AID SCIENCE.

Holmes Declines to Allow His Emotions to Be Registered.

Philadelphia Press. Many scientific men, various societies and many colleges are making efforts to secure the removal of the brain of H. H. Holmes, the late serial murderer. Several have made offers to buy his corpse. Holmes' disposition is to be made of whatever he may desire. He is not to be specified by himself. Knowing this, the medical men have sent their applications to one of them escaped alive, James, the oldest son of Holmes, who is now in the hands of the police. He has spoken but little upon this subject to Mr. Rotan, but it is expected that he will make a statement, directing post-mortem arrangements.

WONT AID SCIENCE.

Holmes Declines to Allow His Emotions to Be Registered.

Philadelphia Press. Many scientific men, various societies and many colleges are making efforts to secure the removal of the brain of H. H. Holmes, the late serial murderer. Several have made offers to buy his corpse. Holmes' disposition is to be made of whatever he may desire. He is not to be specified by himself. Knowing this, the medical men have sent their applications to one of them escaped alive, James, the oldest son of Holmes, who is now in the hands of the police. He has spoken but little upon this subject to Mr. Rotan, but it is expected that he will make a statement, directing post-mortem arrangements.

WONT AID SCIENCE.

Holmes Declines to Allow His Emotions to Be Registered.

Philadelphia Press. Many scientific men, various societies and many colleges are making efforts to secure the removal of the brain of H. H. Holmes, the late serial murderer. Several have made offers to buy his corpse. Holmes' disposition is to be made of whatever he may desire. He is not to be specified by himself. Knowing this, the medical men have sent their applications to one of them escaped alive, James, the oldest son of Holmes, who is now in the hands of the police. He has spoken but little upon this subject to Mr. Rotan, but it is expected that he will make a statement, directing post-mortem arrangements.

WONT AID SCIENCE.

Holmes Declines to Allow His Emotions to Be Registered.

Philadelphia Press. Many scientific men, various societies and many colleges are making efforts to secure the removal of the brain of H. H. Holmes, the late serial murderer. Several have made offers to buy his corpse. Holmes' disposition is to be made of whatever he may desire. He is not to be specified by himself. Knowing this, the medical men have sent their applications to one of them escaped alive, James, the oldest son of Holmes, who is now in the hands of the police. He has spoken but little upon this subject to Mr. Rotan, but it is expected that he will make a statement, directing post-mortem arrangements.

WONT AID SCIENCE.

Holmes Declines to Allow His Emotions to Be Registered.

Philadelphia Press. Many scientific men, various societies and many colleges are making efforts to secure the removal of the brain of H. H. Holmes, the late serial murderer. Several have made offers to buy his corpse. Holmes' disposition is to be made of whatever he may desire. He is not to be specified by himself. Knowing this, the medical men have sent their applications to one of them escaped alive, James, the oldest son of Holmes, who is now in the hands of the police. He has spoken but little upon this subject to Mr. Rotan, but it is expected that he will make a statement, directing post-mortem arrangements.

WONT AID SCIENCE.

Holmes Declines to Allow His Emotions to Be Registered.

Philadelphia Press. Many scientific men, various societies and many colleges are making efforts to secure the removal of the brain of H. H. Holmes, the late serial murderer. Several have made offers to buy his corpse. Holmes' disposition is to be made of whatever he may desire. He is not to be specified by himself. Knowing this, the medical men have sent their applications to one of them escaped alive, James, the oldest son of Holmes, who is now in the hands of the police. He has spoken but little upon this subject to Mr. Rotan, but it is expected that he will make a statement, directing post-mortem arrangements.

WONT AID SCIENCE.

Holmes Declines to Allow His Emotions to Be Registered.

Philadelphia Press. Many scientific men, various societies and many colleges are making efforts to secure the removal of the brain of H. H. Holmes, the late serial murderer. Several have made offers to buy his corpse. Holmes' disposition is to be made of whatever he may desire. He is not to be specified by himself. Knowing this, the medical men have sent their applications to one of them escaped alive, James, the oldest son of Holmes, who is now in the hands of the police. He has spoken but little upon this subject to Mr. Rotan, but it is expected that he will make a statement, directing post-mortem arrangements.

WONT AID SCIENCE.

Holmes Declines to Allow His Emotions to Be Registered.

Philadelphia Press. Many scientific men, various societies and many colleges are making efforts to secure the removal of the brain of H. H. Holmes, the late serial murderer. Several have made offers to buy his corpse. Holmes' disposition is to be made of whatever he may desire. He is not to be specified by himself. Knowing this, the medical men have sent their applications to one of them escaped alive, James, the oldest son of Holmes, who is now in the hands of the police. He has spoken but little upon this subject to Mr. Rotan, but it is expected that he will make a statement, directing post-mortem arrangements.

WONT AID SCIENCE.

Holmes Declines to Allow His Emotions to Be Registered.

Philadelphia Press. Many scientific men, various societies and many colleges are making efforts to secure the removal of the brain of H. H. Holmes, the late serial murderer. Several have made offers to buy his corpse. Holmes' disposition is to be made of whatever he may desire. He is not to be specified by himself. Knowing this, the medical men have sent their applications to one of them escaped alive, James, the oldest son of Holmes, who is now in the hands of the police. He has spoken but little upon this subject to Mr. Rotan, but it is expected that he will make a statement, directing post-mortem arrangements.

WONT AID SCIENCE.

Holmes Declines to Allow His Emotions to Be Registered.

Philadelphia Press. Many scientific men, various societies and many colleges are making efforts to secure the removal of the brain of H. H. Holmes, the late serial murderer. Several have made offers to buy his corpse. Holmes' disposition is to be made of whatever he may desire. He is not to be specified by himself. Knowing this, the medical men have sent their applications to one of them escaped alive, James, the oldest son of Holmes, who is now in the hands of the police. He has spoken but little upon this subject to Mr. Rotan, but it is expected that he will make a statement, directing post-mortem arrangements.

WONT AID SCIENCE.

Holmes Declines to Allow His Emotions to Be Registered.

Philadelphia Press. Many scientific men, various societies and many colleges are making efforts to secure the removal of the brain of H. H. Holmes, the late serial murderer. Several have made offers to buy his corpse. Holmes' disposition is to be made of whatever he may desire. He is not to be specified by himself. Knowing this, the medical men have sent their applications to one of them escaped alive, James, the oldest son of Holmes, who is now in the hands of the police. He has spoken but little upon this subject to Mr. Rotan, but it is expected that he will make a statement, directing post-mortem arrangements.

IN WILHELM'S HONOR

LUNCH, STATE DINNER, MUSIC AND CHEERS AT VENICE.

Conference Between the German Emperor and the Italian King and His Advisers—The Matabele War.

Special to the Indianapolis Journal.

VENICE, April 12.—The stately ceremonies incident to the visit here of the Emperor and Empress of Germany continue, as the interest and friendly enthusiasm of the people is unabated. The city is in festive attire, and nothing could exceed the brilliancy of the color effects of some of the decorations of the houses and of the innumerable floating craft. King Humbert and Queen Margaret attended mass this morning in the palace chapel, while Emperor William and Empress Augusta attended a religious service on board the Imperial yacht Hohenzollern. Directly after lunch Emperor William and King Humbert had a long conference concerning affairs of state of the allied nations, at which were present the Marquis di Rudine, Italian ambassador, and the other Italian ministers, Count di Biscione, Italian ambassador to Berlin, and Baron von Buelow, the German ambassador at Rome. The Duke of Sermoneta, the Minister of Foreign Affairs, received a visit from the German ambassador at 5 o'clock. There was a state dinner at the palace to-night. The Emperor and Empress dined with the King and Queen at the right and Emperor Augusta at the left of King Humbert. Queen Margaret sat at the Emperor's right, with the Prince of Naples opposite. The Ministers and ambassadors of the allied nations, together with the members of the suites of the Emperor and King, were with their wives, made up the guest number. A reception followed to the Venetian Senators and Deputies. King Humbert presented a deputation with an address of welcome to the Emperor, who expressed his thanks and conversed with the Emperor on parliamentary matters in Italian and German. The Emperor and King were engaged in a conversation with all the guests.

WONT AID SCIENCE.

Holmes Declines to Allow His Emotions to Be Registered.

Philadelphia Press. Many scientific men, various societies and many colleges are making efforts to secure the removal of the brain of H. H. Holmes, the late serial murderer. Several have made offers to buy his corpse. Holmes' disposition is to be made of whatever he may desire. He is not to be specified by himself. Knowing this, the medical men have sent their applications to one of them escaped alive, James, the oldest son of Holmes, who is now in the hands of the police. He has spoken but little upon this subject to Mr. Rotan, but it is expected that he will make a statement, directing post-mortem arrangements.

WONT AID SCIENCE.

Holmes Declines to Allow His Emotions to Be Registered.

Philadelphia Press. Many scientific men, various societies and many colleges are making efforts to secure the removal of the brain of H. H. Holmes, the late serial murderer. Several have made offers to buy his corpse. Holmes' disposition is to be made of whatever he may desire. He is not to be specified by himself. Knowing this, the medical men have sent their applications to one of them escaped alive, James, the oldest son of Holmes, who is now in the hands of the police. He has spoken but little upon this subject to Mr. Rotan, but it is expected that he will make a statement, directing post-mortem arrangements.

WONT AID SCIENCE.

Holmes Declines to Allow His Emotions to Be Registered.

Philadelphia Press. Many scientific men, various societies and many colleges are making efforts to secure the removal of the brain of H. H. Holmes, the late serial murderer. Several have made offers to buy his corpse. Holmes' disposition is to be made of whatever he may desire. He is not to be specified by himself. Knowing this, the medical men have sent their applications to one of them escaped alive, James, the oldest son of Holmes, who is now in the hands of the police. He has spoken but little upon this subject to Mr. Rotan, but it is expected that he will make a statement, directing post-mortem arrangements.

WONT AID SCIENCE.

Holmes Declines to Allow His Emotions to Be Registered.

Philadelphia Press. Many scientific men, various societies and many colleges are making efforts to secure the removal of the brain of H. H. Holmes, the late serial murderer. Several have made offers to buy his corpse. Holmes' disposition is to be made of whatever he may desire. He is not to be specified by himself. Knowing this, the medical men have sent their applications to one of them escaped alive, James, the oldest son of Holmes, who is now in the hands of the police. He has spoken but little upon this subject to Mr. Rotan, but it is expected that he will make a statement, directing post-mortem arrangements.

WONT AID SCIENCE.

Holmes Declines to Allow His Emotions to Be Registered.

Philadelphia Press. Many scientific men, various societies and many colleges are making efforts to secure the removal of the brain of H. H. Holmes, the late serial murderer. Several have made offers to buy his corpse. Holmes' disposition is to be made of whatever he may desire. He is not to be specified by himself. Knowing this, the medical men have sent their applications to one of them escaped alive, James, the oldest son of Holmes, who is now in the hands of the police. He has spoken but little upon this subject to Mr. Rotan, but it is expected that he will make a statement, directing post-mortem arrangements.

WONT AID SCIENCE.

Holmes Declines to Allow His Emotions to Be Registered.

Philadelphia Press. Many scientific men, various societies and many colleges are making efforts to secure the removal of the brain of H. H. Holmes, the late serial murderer. Several have made offers to buy his corpse. Holmes' disposition is to be made of whatever he may desire. He is not to be specified by himself. Knowing this, the medical men have sent their applications to one of them escaped alive, James, the oldest son of Holmes, who is now in the hands of the police. He has spoken but little upon this subject to Mr. Rotan, but it is expected that he will make a statement, directing post-mortem arrangements.

WONT AID SCIENCE.

Holmes Declines to Allow His Emotions to Be Registered.

Philadelphia Press. Many scientific men, various societies and many colleges are making efforts to secure the removal of the brain of H. H. Holmes, the late serial murderer. Several have made offers to buy his corpse. Holmes' disposition is to be made of whatever he may desire. He is not to be specified by himself. Knowing this, the medical men have sent their applications to one of them escaped alive, James, the oldest son of Holmes, who is now in the hands of the police. He has spoken but little upon this subject to Mr. Rotan, but it is expected that he will make a statement, directing post-mortem arrangements.

WONT AID SCIENCE.

Holmes Declines to Allow His Emotions to Be Registered.

Philadelphia Press. Many scientific men, various societies and many colleges are making efforts to secure the removal of the brain of H. H. Holmes, the late serial murderer. Several have made offers to buy his corpse. Holmes' disposition is to be made of whatever he may desire. He is not to be specified by himself. Knowing this, the medical men have sent their applications to one of them escaped alive, James, the oldest son of Holmes, who is now in the hands of the police. He has spoken but little upon this subject to Mr. Rotan, but it is expected that he will make a statement, directing post-mortem arrangements.

WONT AID SCIENCE.

Holmes Declines to Allow His Emotions to Be Registered.

Philadelphia Press. Many scientific men, various societies and many colleges are making efforts to secure the removal of the brain of H. H. Holmes, the late serial murderer. Several have made offers to buy his corpse. Holmes' disposition is to be made of whatever he may desire. He is not to be specified by himself. Knowing this, the medical men have sent their applications to one of them escaped alive, James, the oldest son of Holmes, who is now in the hands of the police. He has spoken but little upon this subject to Mr. Rotan, but it is expected that he will make a statement, directing post-mortem arrangements.

WONT AID SCIENCE.

Holmes Declines to Allow His Emotions to Be Registered.

Philadelphia Press. Many scientific men, various societies and many colleges are making efforts to secure the removal of the brain of H. H. Holmes, the late serial murderer. Several have made offers to buy his corpse. Holmes' disposition is to be made of whatever he may desire. He is not to be specified by himself. Knowing this, the medical men have sent their applications to one of them escaped alive, James, the oldest son of Holmes, who is now in the hands of the police. He has spoken but little upon this subject to Mr. Rotan, but it is expected that he will make a statement, directing post-mortem arrangements.

WONT AID SCIENCE.

Holmes Declines to Allow His Emotions to Be Registered.

Philadelphia Press. Many scientific men, various societies and many colleges are making efforts to secure the removal of the brain of H. H. Holmes, the late serial murderer. Several have made offers to buy his corpse. Holmes' disposition is to be made of whatever he may desire. He is not to be specified by himself. Knowing this, the medical men have sent their applications to one of them escaped alive, James, the oldest son of Holmes, who is now in the hands of the police. He has spoken but little upon this subject to Mr. Rotan, but it is expected that he will make a statement, directing post-mortem arrangements.

WONT AID SCIENCE.

Holmes Declines to Allow His Emotions to Be Registered.

Philadelphia Press. Many scientific men, various societies and many colleges are making efforts to secure the removal of the brain of H. H. Holmes, the late serial murderer. Several have made offers to buy his corpse. Holmes' disposition is to be made of whatever he may desire. He is not to be specified by himself. Knowing this, the medical men have sent their applications to one of them escaped alive, James, the oldest son of Holmes, who is now in the hands of the police. He has spoken but little upon this subject to Mr. Rotan, but it is expected that he will make a statement, directing post-mortem arrangements.

WONT AID SCIENCE.

Holmes Declines to Allow His Emotions to Be Registered.

Philadelphia Press. Many scientific men, various societies and many colleges are making efforts to secure the removal of the brain of H. H. Holmes, the late serial murderer. Several have made offers to buy his corpse. Holmes' disposition is to be made of whatever he may desire. He is not to be specified by himself. Knowing this, the medical men have sent their applications to one of them escaped alive, James, the oldest son of Holmes, who is now in the hands of the police. He has spoken but little upon this subject to Mr. Rotan, but it is expected that he will make a statement, directing post-mortem arrangements.

that Antonio Maceo is here waiting for him. The party returned and the news was spread by word of mouth. Antonio Maceo is here waiting for him. The party returned and the news was spread by word of mouth. Antonio Maceo is here waiting for him. The party returned and the news was spread by word of mouth.

Several Lives Supposed to Be Lost and Much Property Damaged—Furious Gale in Texas.

Candidates Nominated by Primaries and Delegate Conventions.

Special to the Indianapolis Journal.

VENICE, April 12.—The stately ceremonies incident to the visit here of the Emperor and Empress of Germany continue, as the interest and friendly enthusiasm of the people is unabated. The city is in festive attire, and nothing could exceed the brilliancy of the color effects of some of the decorations of the houses and of the innumerable floating craft. King Humbert and Queen Margaret attended mass this morning in the palace chapel, while Emperor William and Empress Augusta attended a religious service on board the Imperial yacht Hohenzollern. Directly after lunch Emperor William and King Humbert had a long conference concerning affairs of state of the allied nations, at which were present the Marquis di Rudine, Italian ambassador, and the other Italian ministers, Count di Biscione, Italian ambassador to Berlin, and Baron von Buelow, the German ambassador at Rome. The Duke of Sermoneta, the Minister of Foreign Affairs, received a visit from the German ambassador at 5 o'clock. There was a state dinner at the palace to-night. The Emperor and Empress dined with the King and Queen at the right and Emperor Augusta at the left of King Humbert. Queen Margaret sat at the Emperor's right, with the Prince of Naples opposite. The Ministers and ambassadors of the allied nations, together with the members of the suites of the Emperor and King, were with their wives, made up the guest number. A reception followed to the Venetian Senators and Deputies. King Humbert presented a deputation with an address of welcome to the Emperor, who expressed his thanks and conversed with the Emperor on parliamentary matters in Italian and German. The Emperor and King were engaged in a conversation with all the guests.

WONT AID SCIENCE.

Holmes Declines to Allow His Emotions to Be Registered.

Philadelphia Press. Many scientific men, various societies and many colleges are making efforts to secure the removal of the brain of H. H. Holmes, the late serial murderer. Several have made offers to buy his corpse. Holmes' disposition is to be made of whatever he may desire. He is not to be specified by himself. Knowing this, the medical men have sent their applications to one of them escaped alive, James, the oldest son of Holmes, who is now in the hands of the police. He has spoken but little upon this subject to Mr. Rotan, but it is expected that he will make a statement, directing post-mortem arrangements.

WONT AID SCIENCE.

Holmes Declines to Allow His Emotions to Be Registered.

Philadelphia Press. Many scientific men, various societies and many colleges are making efforts to secure the removal of the brain of H. H. Holmes, the late serial murderer. Several have made offers to buy his corpse. Holmes' disposition is to be made of whatever he may desire. He is not to be specified by himself. Knowing this, the medical men have sent their applications to one of them escaped alive, James, the oldest son of Holmes, who is now in the hands of the police. He has spoken but little upon this subject to Mr. Rotan, but it is expected that he will make a statement, directing post-mortem arrangements.

WONT AID SCIENCE.

Holmes Declines to Allow His Emotions to Be Registered.

Philadelphia Press. Many scientific men, various societies and many colleges are making efforts to secure the removal of the brain of H. H. Holmes, the late serial murderer. Several have made offers to buy his corpse. Holmes' disposition is to be made of whatever he may desire. He is not to be specified by himself. Knowing this, the medical men have sent their applications to one of them escaped alive, James, the oldest son of Holmes, who is now in the hands of the police. He has spoken but little upon this subject to Mr. Rotan, but it is expected that he will make a statement, directing post-mortem arrangements.

WONT AID SCIENCE.

Holmes Declines to Allow His Emotions to Be Registered.

Philadelphia Press. Many scientific men, various societies and many colleges are making efforts to secure the removal of the brain of H. H. Holmes, the late serial murderer. Several have made offers to buy his corpse. Holmes' disposition is to be made of whatever he may desire. He is not to be specified by himself. Knowing this, the medical men have sent their applications to one of them escaped alive, James, the oldest son of Holmes, who is now in the hands of the police. He has spoken but little upon this subject to Mr. Rotan, but it is expected that he will make a statement, directing post-mortem arrangements.

WONT AID SCIENCE.

Holmes Declines to Allow His Emotions to Be Registered.

Philadelphia Press. Many scientific men, various societies and many colleges are making efforts to secure the removal of the brain of H. H. Holmes, the late serial murderer. Several have made offers to buy his corpse. Holmes' disposition is to be made of whatever he may desire. He is not to be specified by himself. Knowing this, the medical men have sent their applications to one of them escaped alive, James, the oldest son of Holmes, who is now in the hands of the police. He has spoken but little upon this subject to Mr. Rotan, but it is expected that he will make a statement, directing post-mortem arrangements.

WONT AID SCIENCE.

Holmes Declines to Allow His Emotions to Be Registered.

Philadelphia Press. Many scientific men, various societies and many colleges are making efforts to secure the removal of the brain of H. H. Holmes, the late serial murderer. Several have made offers to buy his corpse. Holmes' disposition is to be made of whatever he may desire. He is not to be specified by himself. Knowing this, the medical men have sent their applications to one of them escaped alive, James, the oldest son of Holmes, who is now in the hands of the police. He has spoken but little upon this subject to Mr. Rotan, but it is expected that he will make a statement, directing post-mortem arrangements.

WONT AID SCIENCE.

Holmes Declines to Allow His Emotions to Be Registered.

Philadelphia Press. Many scientific men, various societies and many colleges are making efforts to secure the removal of the brain of H. H. Holmes, the late serial murderer. Several have made offers to buy his corpse. Holmes' disposition is to be made of whatever he may desire. He is not to be specified by himself. Knowing this, the medical men have sent their applications to one of them escaped alive, James, the oldest son of Holmes, who is now in the hands of the police. He has spoken but little upon this subject to Mr. Rotan, but it is expected that he will make a statement, directing post-mortem arrangements.

WONT AID SCIENCE.

Holmes Declines to Allow His Emotions to Be Registered.

Philadelphia Press. Many scientific men, various societies and many colleges are making efforts to secure the removal of the brain of H. H. Holmes, the late serial murderer. Several have made offers to buy his corpse. Holmes' disposition is to be made of whatever he may desire. He is not to be specified by himself. Knowing this, the medical men have sent their applications to one of them escaped alive, James, the oldest son of Holmes, who is now in the hands of the police. He has spoken but little upon this subject to Mr. Rotan, but it is expected that he will make a statement, directing post-mortem arrangements.